CAMBRIDGE International Examinations

You must answer five questions in all, one question from each Section and one other question.

Section A

1 (a) Give an outline of the tribal and clan system in and around Mecca in the years leading up to the coming of Islam. [12]

(b) How far did this tribal and clan system contribute to the success of Islam during the Prophet Muhammad's lifetime? [8]

2 (a) Outline the main stages in the Prophet's public career in Mecca and Medina. [12]

(b) How is the term 'success' to be understood with respect to the Prophet's career? [8]

3 Outline the main difficulties faced by the Caliph ʿUthman, and explain why there was division and fighting among Muslims during his caliphate. [20]

Section B

4 The concepts of tawhid (oneness of God) and risalah (prophetic messengers) are central to the Qur'an. Which of these, if either, is more fundamental, and why? [20]

5 (a) What do the surahs set for special study tell about the prophets Moses and Jesus? [12]

(b) In what ways do the accounts of these prophets' lives resemble the life of the Prophet Muhammad (pbuh)? [8]

6 'There has often been disagreement among Muslims over the relationship between the authority of the Qur'an and the importance of human reason.' Give reasons to agree or disagree with this claim. [20]

Section C

7 With particular reference to any three of the Five Pillars, explain how observance of them strengthens the sense of community in Islam. [20]

8 (a) Outline the main features of a Muslim wedding. [12]

(b) Explain the features that make this a distinctively Muslim celebration. [8]

9 God sends angels, and he also sends revealed books. Explain the different functions of God's angels and his books. [20]

Section D

10 Is the Qur'an alone sufficient as a source of guidance for Muslims' lives in the world today? Give reasons for your answer. [20]

11 How is the Prophet's Sunnah used together with the Qur'an to give guidance to Muslims? Give at least two examples of the use of the Qur'an and Sunnah together in your answer. [20]

12 The principle of ijtihad (individual endeavour) has often proved useful in Islam, though it has never gained complete acceptance. Explain the reasons for this. [20]
