Read carefully Passage A, At the restaurant, in the Reading Booklet Insert and then answer Questions 1 and 2 on this Question Paper.

Question 1

You are a local journalist who was in the restaurant that evening and saw everything that happened. The next day you decide to write an article for the local newspaper.

Write the newspaper article.

In your newspaper article you should:

- report what you observed in the restaurant and how the incident was resolved
- explain the complaints of tourists and how far you think they are justified
- suggest how locals feel about tourists and how both sides could work to rebuild mutual respect.

Base your newspaper article on what you have read in Passage A, but be careful to use your own words. Address each of the three bullet points.

Begin your article with the headline, 'Our city – a playground for tourists?'

Write about 250 to 350 words.

Up to 15 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 5 marks for the quality of your writing.

[Turn over for Question 2]

Question 2

Re-read the descriptions of:

(a) the waiter's appearance and behaviour in paragraph 3, beginning, 'Fenton and the waiter…'

(b) the boy in paragraph 7, beginning, 'By now, I was supporting the kid…'.

Select four powerful words or phrases from each paragraph. Your choices should include imagery. Explain how each word or phrase selected is used effectively in the context.

Write about 200 to 300 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer.
